

Summary Note:

*The Christ is Perfect Love and Perfect Love is IN you.
The Christ Mind is your RIGHT mind (“superconscious”) and that level of your mind naturally and automatically (i.e., “involuntarily”) produces miracles instead of lack.*

“Tell B. he should try to understand the VERY important difference between Christ-control and Christ-guidance.

Remember, you already have a point about the involuntary nature of miracles. We also have established the fact that everything involuntary belongs under Christ-control, NOT under yours. Under Christ-control, Miracles REPLENISH the doer as well as the receiver.

Christ-controlled miracles are part of the Atonement, but Christ-guidance is personal, and leads to PERSONAL salvation. The impersonal nature of miracles is an essential ingredient, because this enables Me to control their distribution as I see fit.

Christ-guidance, on the other hand, leads to the highly Personal experience of Revelation. This is why it involves PERSONAL choice. A guide does NOT control, by definition, but he does DIRECT, leaving the following up to you. “Lead us not into temptation” means “guide us out of our own errors.”

Tell B. that his slip about (rivet) should be noted. Some slips reach consciousness from the un-Christ-controlled subconscious, and betray lack of love. But others (slips) come from the superconscious, which IS in communion with God, and which can also break into consciousness. HIS slip (rivet) was an expression of a Soul gaining enough strength to request freedom from prison. It will ultimately DEMAND it.

Scribes {everyone on the spiritual path] MUST learn Christ-control, to replace their former habits, which DID produce scarcity rather than abundance. From errors of this kind, the sense of deprivation IS inevitable, but very easily corrected.

The miracles you are told NOT to perform have not lost their value. They are still expressions of your own state of Grace, but the ACTION aspect of the miracle should be Christ-controlled, because of His complete Awareness of the Whole Plan. The impersonal nature of miracle-mindedness ensures YOUR own Grace, but only Christ is in a position to know where Grace can be BESTOWED.

Readiness here means keep your perception right side up, (or valid), so you will ALWAYS be ready, willing, and able. These are the essentials for “listen, learn, and do.” You must be

READY to listen (listen to my voice)
WILLING to learn (learn to undo error) and ABLE to do (DO something to correct it)

Only the last is involuntary, because it is the APPLICATION of miracles which must be Christ-controlled. But the other two, which are the voluntary aspects of miracle-mindedness, ARE up to you.

The first two are not enough. The real members of MY party are active workers. The prayer that leads out of the desert forever is:

*If you will tell me what to do,
ONLY THAT I will to do.*

Christ-controlled miracles are selective only in that they are directed toward those who can use them for THEMSELVES. Since this makes it inevitable that they will extend them to others, a very strong chain of Atonement is welded. But Christ-control takes no account at all of the MAGNITUDE of the miracle itself, because the concept of size exists only in a plane that is itself unreal. Since the miracle aims at RESTORING reality, it would hardly be useful if it were bound by the laws of the same error it aims to correct.

Both the power and the strength of man’s creative will must be understood, before the real meaning of denial can be appreciated and abolished. Denial is NOT mere negation. It is a positive miscreation. While the miscreation is NECESSARILY believed in by its own creator, it does not exist at all at the level of true Creation. [In the published version, this sentence was changed to read: “All aspects of fear are untrue because they do not exist at the creative level...” and then he added: “and therefore do not exist at all.” which reverses the meaning of what Jesus had just said.]

We said that Christ-control can take over everything that DOESN’T matter, and Christ-guidance can direct everything that DOES, if you so will. Fear cannot be Christ-controlled, but it CAN be self-controlled. Fear is always associated with what does not matter.

Tell B. that his slip about (rivet) should be noted. Some slips reach consciousness from the un-Christ-controlled subconscious, and betray lack of love. But others (slips) come from the superconscious, which IS in communion with God, and which can also break into consciousness. HIS slip (rivet) was an expression of a Soul gaining enough strength to request freedom from prison. It will ultimately DEMAND it.

Tell B. that miracles DO NOT depend on Revelation. They INDUCE it. He is quite capable of miracles already, but he is still too fearful for Revelations.
